

How can you possible want to limit any media that can alert the public to a emergengy situation or threat in this day and age? Americans have a right to protect themselves and satilite radio offers valuable information that should flow freely. Please don't give into the big money boys and let satilite radio alone.

Sincerely,

Thomas Coffeen